Introduction

- ▶ European Union is an organization of 25 countries of Europe. EU came into operation in 1993 following the 1992 MAASTRICHT TREATY which was signed by 12 European nations viz. Denmark, Belgium, France, Germany, Greece, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Portugal, Spain and UK.
- ▶ Through the Maastricht Treaty, these 12 nations agreed on a timetable for the introduction of a single currency (the Euro), a common European citizenship and extension of European cooperation in Justice and home affairs.
- ▶ Subsequently, the single currency Euro was introduced on June 1, 2002 and after six months, the national currencies were abolished. However, Denmark, Sweden, Greece and UK did not adopt Euro in the first phase.

Introduction...

- ▶ Austria, Finland and Sweden joined in 1995 raising the number of member countries to 15.
- ▶ Subsequently, on 16th April, 2003, the strength of EU rose to 25 when 10 more countries joined this organization. These nations were Cyprus, Czech Republic, Estonia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Slovenia. Thus, the current number of EU members is twenty-five whereas Bulgaria, Romania and Turkey have applied for its membership.

History

- ▶ European Coal and Steel Community in 1951, which was declared to be "a first step in the federation of Europe", starting with the aim of eliminating the possibility of further wars between its member states by means of pooling the national heavy industries.
- ▶ In 1957, the six countries signed the Treaty of Rome, which extended the earlier cooperation within the European Coal and Steel Community (ECSC) and created the European Economic Community, (EEC) establishing a customs union.
- ▶ They also signed another treaty on the same day creating the European Atomic Energy Community (Euratom) for cooperation in developing nuclear energy. Both treaties came into force in 1958.

History

- ▶ The European Union was formally established when the Maastricht Treaty came into force on 1 November 1993, and in 1995 Austria, Finland and Sweden joined the newly established EU. In 2002, euro notes and coins replaced national currencies in 12 of the member states. Since then, the eurozone has increased to encompass 17 countries. In 2004, the EU saw its biggest enlargement to date when Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Estonia, Hungary, Latvia, Lithuania, Malta, Poland, Slovakia and Slovenia joined the Union.
